

Email from John Doe to Jonathan Smith

Date: April 12, 2023

Subject: Appreciation and Queries Post Court Decision

Dear Jonathan,

I hope this email finds you well. First and foremost, I want to express my profound gratitude for your exceptional representation in my case against ExampleCompany GmbH. The favorable decision by the court is a huge relief, and I couldn't have achieved this without your expertise and dedication.

As we move forward, I have a few questions and concerns:

1 Reinstatement Logistics:

- Could you please guide me on how to approach the HR department of ExampleCompany regarding my reinstatement? I am particularly concerned about how my colleagues and supervisors will perceive my return.

2 Compensation and Benefits:

- Regarding the compensation for lost wages and the severance package, do I need to follow up with ExampleCompany's payroll department, or will this be handled by your office?

3 Review of New Employment Terms:

- If ExampleCompany presents me with a new employment contract, I would appreciate your assistance in reviewing it to ensure it aligns with the court's decision and my interests.

4 Emotional and Professional Support:

- Returning to work after this legal dispute might be challenging. Do you recommend any professional counseling services or support groups for individuals in my situation?

I look forward to our next meeting and discussing these points in more detail. Please let me know a convenient time for you.

Thank you once again for your invaluable support and guidance throughout this process.

Best regards,
John Doe